Dick Vermeil FB – Motivation

One of the most distinguished coaching careers in the NFL officially concluded when Dick Vermeil announced his retirement from professional football in January 2006.

In 1969 George Allen hired Vermeil to become the first special teams coach in NFL history with the Los Angeles Rams. He was named head coach at UCLA in 1974, where he led the Bruins to a Rose Bowl Championship over the #1 ranked Ohio State Buckeyes on January 1, 1976. Vermeil's 15-year tenure as an NFL head coach began with the Philadelphia Eagles.

In seven seasons with the Eagles, Vermeil engineered four playoff appearances, highlighted by an NFC Championship win over the Dallas Cowboys and a trip to Super Bowl XV.

In 1997, Vermeil returned to the NFL as head coach of the St. Louis Rams, and led the team to its first Super Bowl victory, beating the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV.

Vermeil is one of five NFL head coaches to lead three different teams into the playoffs.

Jim LeProwse Softball

Jim LeProwse is entering his 6th season as the Dawson Community College head softball coach. Under his leadership, the Buccaneers have won Mon-Dak conference championships in 2012, 2013, 2014, and 2015. Coach LeProwse was also named Mon-Dak Conference Coach of the Year for the last 4 consecutive years 2012, 2013, 2014, and 2015. He was also named Region IX Coach of the Year in 2013. 2013 also saw the softball team win its first ever Championship in the Region IX tournament. The 2013 Buccaneer softball team earned a spot to play in the Super Regional Championship in Cedar Rapids, Iowa and lost to tournament champion Kirkwood Community College. The Buccaneers also won another regional championship in 2015, this time playing in Region XIII and LeProwse being named Region XIII Coach of the Year.

Dana Altman Basketball

Dana Altman is one of only six active coaches in NCAA Division I with 19 consecutive winning seasons, including an Elite-8 appearance this past season. He is part of an exclusive fraternity that includes Mike Krzyzewski, Tom Izzo, Roy Williams, Bill Self and Jim Boeheim.

The 2013 National COY and three-time Pac-12 COY has won more games in his first six seasons than any coach in Oregon history. Altman is 154-64 in Eugene, and 564-307 in 27 seasons as a head coach at the NCAA Division I level in stints at Oregon, Creighton, Kansas State and Marshall.

Altman has led the Ducks to six consecutive 20-win seasons and six postseason appearances, including four straight NCAA Tournaments for the first time in school history, winning at least one game in each of those years.

Altman's former assistant and former assistant, Brian Fish, was instrumental in bringing him to speak this year.

Harry Clark T&F - Hurdles

Harry Clark, former University of Houston and Montana State standout and 12-year assistant at U of M, just completed his 4th season as the head Carroll Track mentor.

As a collegiate athlete Clark competed at the University of Houston and Montana State University, qualifying four times for the NCAA championships in the decathlon. His highest finish was fourth at the 1989 national meet. Clark also competed at the 1987 U.S. Olympic Festival, where he had a third-place showing in the decathlon.

Clark still holds the Montana State University record in the decathlon with 7,633 points.

As a prep at Cascade (Mont.) High, Clark was an 11-time state champion in track & field. He still holds the all-time, all-class state record in the triple jump (48-2) and the Class B record in the 110-meter hurdles (14.54) and 300-meter hurdles (38.1).

Bob Cole Football

Cole is a 26-year collegiate coaching veteran who has made stops at 7 colleges and 2 high schools in his career. An experienced offensive coach, he has served as offensive coordinator at six different universities, most recently at Northern Illinois University.

Under Cole's direction in 2014, his NIU Husky offense thrived, averaging 421.2 yards and 31.5 points per game, on its way to a 5th straight 11-win season. He led a successful offense at Utah State from 2000-04. Cole was also the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of WY and at Florida A&M University.

As offensive coordinator at Montana in 1999, Cole's offense ranked 2nd in the nation in total offense (577.4 ypg), 2nd in scoring offense (46.4 ppg) and passing offense (370 ypg).

Brian Orr Basketball

Brian Orr has built a tradition of excellence as women's basketball coach at NAIA perennial power L-C State. He is the all-time winningest basketball coach in school history with an overall record of 370-126 (.746%). During his 15 years, the Warriors have won 4 Frontier Conference regular season titles, 6 conference tournament titles, and made 13 trips to the NAIA national tournament where they have made it to at least the Sweet 16 in 7 of the past 10 seasons. This year's squad posted a 27-7 record, won both the conference and tournament titles, and advanced to the Elite Eight of the national tournament. Brian has been named the conference's Coach of the Year 4 times.

He has an overall record of 209-36 (.853 winning percentage) in home games and his 159 league victories make him the winningest coach in the Frontier Conference.

Before LC, Orr was top women's assistant at MSU and head Women's mentor at UGF. He also had coaching stops at MSU-B, Ferris, Simms, and Joplin-Inverness. He is a native of Livingston, MT. Topics: "The Clinic" "Offensive concepts for man and zone"

J Robinson Wrestling

Robinson has developed an environment of excellence over the past three decades that has seen Minnesota rise to elite status in college wrestling. Since taking over the Gophers program in 1986, Robinson's teams have claimed the first three National Championships in Minnesota history while the three-time National Coach of the Year. He has helped develop 63 All-Americans, 14 individual National Champions, six Big Ten team titles and 31 different Big Ten Champions accounting for 49 individual titles. All told, Robinson's wrestlers have amassed a total of 124 All-America honors, including a NCAA-record 10 All-Americans during the National Championship run in 2001. His .753 winning percentage is a program record, and his 430 dual meet victories stand as both the best mark in Minnesota wrestling history and the highest total for any active, Division I head coach.

James Perry AD

Jim Perry, District AD for the Huntington Beach Union HS District, graduated from the University of Southern California in 1974 while playing basketball for the Trojans.

Jim has served as Chairman of the National Coaches Council and as President of the National Council of Secondary School Athletic Directors. He has also served as a member of the Building Character Through Sports Task Force for the White House and Congressional Conferences.

In 1997, Jim was inducted into the Southern California Interscholastic Basketball Coaches Association's HOF, in 2006 he was named the "California State Athletic Director of the Year" and in March of 2012, Jim was inducted into the National Association of Sport and Physical Education "Athletic Director Presidential Hall of Fame." Dave Gantt Volleyball

Dave Gantt, no stranger to Montana, has coached High School, Club, Collegiate, and International Volleyball for over 3 decades. Currently the Head Coach at Gonzaga University, Dave has a track record of improvement in every program he has directed. With stops at Belgrade High School (State Champs - 1984), MSU-Northern (Frontier Conf Co-COY in 1989), MSU-Bozeman (Most Successful Coach in Program History), Oregon State, as well as with the USA Men's National Team, Gantt's experience has taken him world-wide.

Having experienced over 700 matches as a head and assistant coach, and accumulating over 400 wins as a head coach, most recently Gantt guided the Gonzaga program to it's first back to back winning seasons in over 25 years, and to the program's lowest ever RPI (National Ranking) of 35 during the 2015 season (330 Div 1 programs). The 2015 season also marked their fifth consecutive year of moving up in the NCAA ranks; beginning at 272 in 2010. After a 15 year hiatus Dave is excited to return to the MCA Clinic. Topics will be: "Cultivating a Growth Mindset", "Outside Hitter Development" and "Wego vs Ego"

Brandi Daw General Session - Suicide Prevention

Brandi Daw is the Community Outreach Coordinator for the Behavioral Health Center in Idaho Falls, Idaho. Brandi is also a proud representative for the Jason Foundation. Her passion is providing knowledge to communities regarding resources that are available through the Jason Foundation to help identify warning signs for suicide, how to help, what to do, what not to do, how to ask, and resources for help. She is state board member for the Suicide Prevention Action Network of Idaho. MCA partnered this year with the Jason Foundation because suicide is the #2 cause of death in Montana, for both adults and teens. This is a message that all coaches and administrators need to hear and take back to their communities.

Bob Stitt Football

Bob Stitt enters his second season at the helm of the Montana Grizzlies. During his first year he led the Griz back to the NCAA FCA Playoffs for the 23rd time in school history. He came to UM after a 15-season stint as the head coach at the Colorado School of Mines.

Stitt's Grizzlies went 8-5 his first season and finished tied for 2nd place in the Big Sky Conference. Highlights included an upset of defending champion, North Dakota State, a 57-16 rout of Eastern Washington and UM's 72nd defeat of Montana State.

He is widely known in national coaching circles for his creative offensive mind and his innovative "fly-sweep" play. His 2014, Orediggers went 10-2 overall and 8-1 in the RMAC, and advanced to the Division II national playoffs. In 2013, they posted an 8-3 record.

Stitt was named league COY in 2004 and 2010. He was selected the Division II Football.com SW Region COY and was also tabbed the AFCA Region 5 COY in 2004.

Shawn Huse Boys' Basketball

"Shawn Huse is the winningest coach in MSU-Northern history. His overall record of 294-154 ranks him seventh in winning percentage (65.6%) and top 15 in active NAIA DI coaches in wins. He has led the Lights to five NAIA National Tournaments and five Frontier Conference titles (league or tournament). Under Huse, the Lights have had nine, 20-win seasons. Shawn was an NAIA Don Meyer National Coach-of-the-Year finalist in 2013, and was named Frontier Conference Coach-of-the-Year in 2007-2008. Under Huse, the Lights have been ranked in the NAIA Top 25 in twelve of his fourteen seasons, led the league seven seasons in defensive-points-allowed, six seasons in three-point-shooting (percent and/or makes), and his teams have broken twelve school records.

Prior to MSU-Northern, Huse worked under Tom Kropp at the University of Nebraska-Kearney where in 2002 they won the RMAC championship and qualified for the NCAA DII Regional Tournament. While Assistant Coach under Rick Dessing at Montana Tech, the Orediggers won back-to-back Frontier Conference Tournament titles, enjoying their only appearances in the NAIA National Tournament (1998 and 1999)."

Jeff Choate Football

Jeff Choate was appointed Montana State's 32nd head football coach in the winter of 2015. An Idaho native, he graduated from UM Western in 1993 and has spent most of his 24 seasons in coaching within a 10-hour drive of Bozeman. "This is what I've worked my entire career for," Choate said, "to lead a college football program."

Choate played football at Montana-Western and began his coaching career with the Bulldogs in 1991-93 followed by stints in Idaho at Challis, Twin Falls and Post Falls.

The Division I chapter of Choate's coaching career began in 2002 at Utah State, where he coached the defensive line (2002) and special teams and safeties (2003-04). He coordinated special teams and coached safeties at Eastern Illinois in 2005-06 before returning to Idaho where he coached from 2006-11. After short stints at WSU and UTEP he moved to Florida, where he coordinated special teams and coached outside linebackers. The next season he took over special teams and defensive line duties at Washington, where he coached in 2014-15.

Jason Petrino Football

Jason Petrino was named the 17th head football coach in Rocky Mountain College history on January 21, 2016.

He comes to Rocky after spending the past four years as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach under legendary coach Joe Glenn at the University of South Dakota.

This past season, the Petrino-led USD defensive unit finished in the top third of the Missouri Valley Football Conference - arguably the best conference in the FCS - in the major defensive statistical categories including overall defense, run defense, and pass defense. As defensive coordinator, he helped lead the Coyotes over five-time FCS National Champions North Dakota State, snapping their 26-game home winning streak.

Petrino has served as defensive coordinator in nine of the last 11 college football seasons. His belief is that success is achieved from having the right players who possess the proper fundamentals, rather than scheme.

PLEASE REMEMBER:
It is important that you wear your clinic badge at all times.

Melanie Meuchel Softball

The 2016 season is Melanie Meuchel's second year as the Montana softball program's pitching coach. Meuchel, a Missoula native and 1997 graduate of Big Sky High School, was hired in September 2013 as the program's first assistant coach.

She has 11 years of college coaching experience, 10 of which have been at the NCAA Division I level.

In Montana's first season of competition in 2015, the team's pitchers helped the Grizzlies win 16 games. The three-pitcher staff had an ERA of 4.75.

Jonathan Woehl T&F - Sprints, IJ, TJ

During Woehl's first year at Montana State University Billings (MSUB), the Yellowjacket Sprint Crew has enjoyed success in the horizontal jumps and hurdles. Austin Lindquist, Landon Polkow, Shaniah Schwend, and Janessa Williams have combined to improve three school records including Men's 110m Hurdles, Men's 400m Hurdles, and Women's Triple Jump. Prior to MSUB, he helped start the track & field program at Southwest Minnesota State University and coached the distance runners and horizontal jumpers.

David Paul T&F - Throws

The 2016 season was David Paul's first year as an assistant coach with the Montana track and field program. He coaches the Grizzlies' throwers, after spending the previous four years coaching at Central Washington University.

A former collegiate shot put, discus and hammer thrower at Eastern Washington University, David brings a variety of experiences and philosophies in working with the events, collected from a wide range of coaches.

Coach Paul will speak 3 sessions: Basics of Shot Put - Glide and Rotational, Discus- A look at Basics and Varied styles, Basics of Javelin.

Brian Solomon Volleyball

Brian Solomon has orchestrated a very successful volleyball program at MT Tech. Entering his fourth season, Solomon has an overall record of 47-40 and 21-25 in conference play.

In his tenure, Solomon has produced, 22 Academic All-Conference selections, one All-American, two All-Region selections, one Freshman of the Year, two Libero of the Year recipients, seven All-Conference selections, one All-Freshman to go along with his Coach of the Year honor (2012).

In 2014 the Orediggers went 12-16 overall and 6-8 in the Frontier. Solomon led Montana Tech to its first Frontier Conference Tournament victory since 2008 with a convincing 3-0 win over Great Falls.

Previously, Solomon mentored the Columbia College Fighting Koalas in South Carolina where he rebuilt the program and turned out three straight winning campaigns from 2009-11. He was an outstanding setter at Hope International University, leading his team to back to back NCCAA National Championships.

Shawn Neary Basketball

Coach Neary just completed his 20th year as a college head coach with 372 career college wins.

7 years ago, Neary started the program at Gillette College. This season the Pronghorns were ranked as high as #3 in the nation, finished the season with a record of 35-2 and 3rd place finish at the National Tournament.

His Gillette teams have averaged 24 wins a year and 30 wins a year the past 3 seasons. The Pronghorns were 2x Region IX North sub-region regular season champions (2014 and 2016), Region IX Champions (2016), Region IX tournament runner up (2014 and 2015). Coach Neary has been named the Region IX North COY (2014 and 2016), District IX COY (2016).

JJ Riley Volleyball

JJ Riley was named Montana State's tenth head coach in the history of Bobcat volleyball on Jan. 21, 2015. Most recently, he helped guide the Utah women's squad to back-to-back 20-win seasons in the Pac-12 and to the second-round of the NCAA Tournament.

Riley brings an extensive and diverse volleyball background to MSU. He served two seasons as an assistant coach with the USC men's volleyball team before joining the Utes, and has coached for Pepperdine.

Tricia Binford Basketball

In 2005, Coach Binford was hired to guide the Bobcats back to the upper echelons of the Big Sky Conference. Now, 11 years later, the former Boise State and WNBA standout is MSU's longest tenured coach as well as its winningest in history, with an unprecedented level of excellence on the court, in the classroom and within the community. Those three hallmarks make Bobcat basketball one of the most respected programs in the country.

On the court, Binford's squads have played for the Big Sky title twice and have made ten straight postseason appearances, including owning the No. 1 seed in 2015-16. Binford has notched 171 career victories at Montana State, which ranks first on MSU's all-time women's basketball coaching ladder and fourth in Big Sky history.

Pat Owen Wrestling

Pat grew up in Polson where he was a three-time Montana state champion and one-time runner up in wrestling. He went on to wrestle at the University of Michigan where he was a three-time NCAA qualifier, three-time All-Big Ten, three-time Academic All American, team captain, and won the prestigious Big Ten Medal of Honor as a senior.

Pat's 4 session topics include: Foundational keys (athleticism, positioning, movement); Neutral Offense from ties; Top Offense; Leadership Development.

Brian Fish Basketball

Brian Fish led the Bobcats to a 14-17 record in his second year at MSU, a dramatic 7-game improvement over the previous year; quite an accomplishment considering 20 of their 31 contests were on the road. When the Cats were at home the fans increased by 1000 per game this season, a testament to the exciting style Coach Fish has implemented in the Bobcat program.

Fish joined the Bobcats after serving as an assistant at the University of Oregon. His time with the Ducks marked the continuation of a long-standing relationship with one of college basketball's most respected coaches, Dana Altman. Brian's 4th season on Altman's staff culminated in a round-of-32 loss to Wisconsin. He has 21 years of experience coaching at the Division I level and has spent 15 of his 25 years in coaching with Altman at Oregon, Kansas State, Creighton and Marshall as well as stops at San Diego under Brad Holland, TCU with Billy Tubbs.

In his 18 seasons as an assistant coach Fish's team has advanced to the post-season 12 times, including five NCAA appearances. Those teams have reached the 20-win mark on 13 occasions.

Chuck Morrell Football

The 2016 season is Head Coach Chuck Morrell's sixth year at the helm of the Oredigger Football Program. Coach Morrell, Frontier Conference COY, guided the Orediggers to a 10-2 overall record and a second Frontier Conference Championship and automatic post season appearance. After starting the season unranked, Tech rose to No. 5 in the final regular season poll, the highest ranking since 1997. The Orediggers hosted their first post season game since 1997 and first post season victory since 2005 defeating No. 18 Dickinson State 44-10. The Orediggers defeated perennial power Carroll College twice in 2015, a first since 1999. Ranked opponents feared the Diggers as Tech topped No. 4 Carroll College, No. 1 Southern Oregon, No. 10 Montana Western and No. 18 Dickinson State. Topic: 3-4 Defensive Secondary Play
