

2018 MCA CLINIC ADDITIONAL SPEAKERS

Don Don Williams
Softball

A former Softball player and assistant coach at Oregon's Linfield college, Coach Williams took over the North Idaho College program in 1998. She has developed a nationally competitive program. The Cardinals have been to two NJCAA World Series, finishing 2nd in 2007 and earning Williams a national COY award. NIC transferred into the NWAC in 2015 and has posted a 107-36 record in that conference. The Cardinals have collected an amazing 573 wins under Coach Williams. Her "academics first" approach has resulted in 10 individual NJCAA Academic All-Americans and 6 Academic All-American teams. Topics: Hitting for Success, Hitting Drills, Infield/ Outfield Drills for Indoor Training

Jim Miller
Wrestling

Jim Miller had a 37-year career coaching the sport of Wrestling, the last 22 years at Wartburg College, where his career dual record was 413-34. He won 21 consecutive Iowa Conference Championships and 10 NCAA Team Championships. In 22 years at Wartburg, Miller's teams finished 1st or 2nd in the Nation 18 times. He is a member of 6 Halls of Fame, was awarded the National D3 COY 5X and the Dan Gable All-Division COY in 2004 and 2013. As an Athlete, Jim Miller was a 2X NCAA Champion for the University of Northern Iowa in Division II, and a 2X All American in Division I. Coach Miller is now a nationally known corporate, athletic and leadership speaker.

Andrew Roundface
Basketball

Andrew is the head BBB coach at Hardin High. He has coached for 8 years, starting as an assistant to his wife's junior high team as well as the varsity assistant at Northern Cheyenne. After one year he took the freshman job at Hardin and spent 4 years as an assistant before being offered the head position. Since taking the reins of the Bulldog program, his team has made 3 consecutive state appearances, winning it all in 2018 and avenging their only loss of the season by downing Billings Central - a team they had played twice before, resulting in an incredible 5 overtimes. Coach Roundface thanks his beautiful wife Sunny, and daughter Starry Knight, for their incredible support.

Mike Miller
Softball

Mike has been the Head Softball at Capital High for 27 years, 24 as the head mentor. During that time his team has 342 wins; including 2 Class AA State Championships, 2 runners-up and a 3rd place finish. Capital High has 7 Western AA Conference titles since 2007. They have qualified for the State tournament every year under Mike. He has been named the MCA AA softball COY in 2004, 2009 and 2018. Mike will share experiences, discuss changes and lessons learned in his 27 years. He will open the discussion and welcomes input from attendees. Topics: Sessions 1: Unique Approaches for Player Comprehension and Communication with Athletes and Parents; Session 2: Offensive and defensive Strategies.

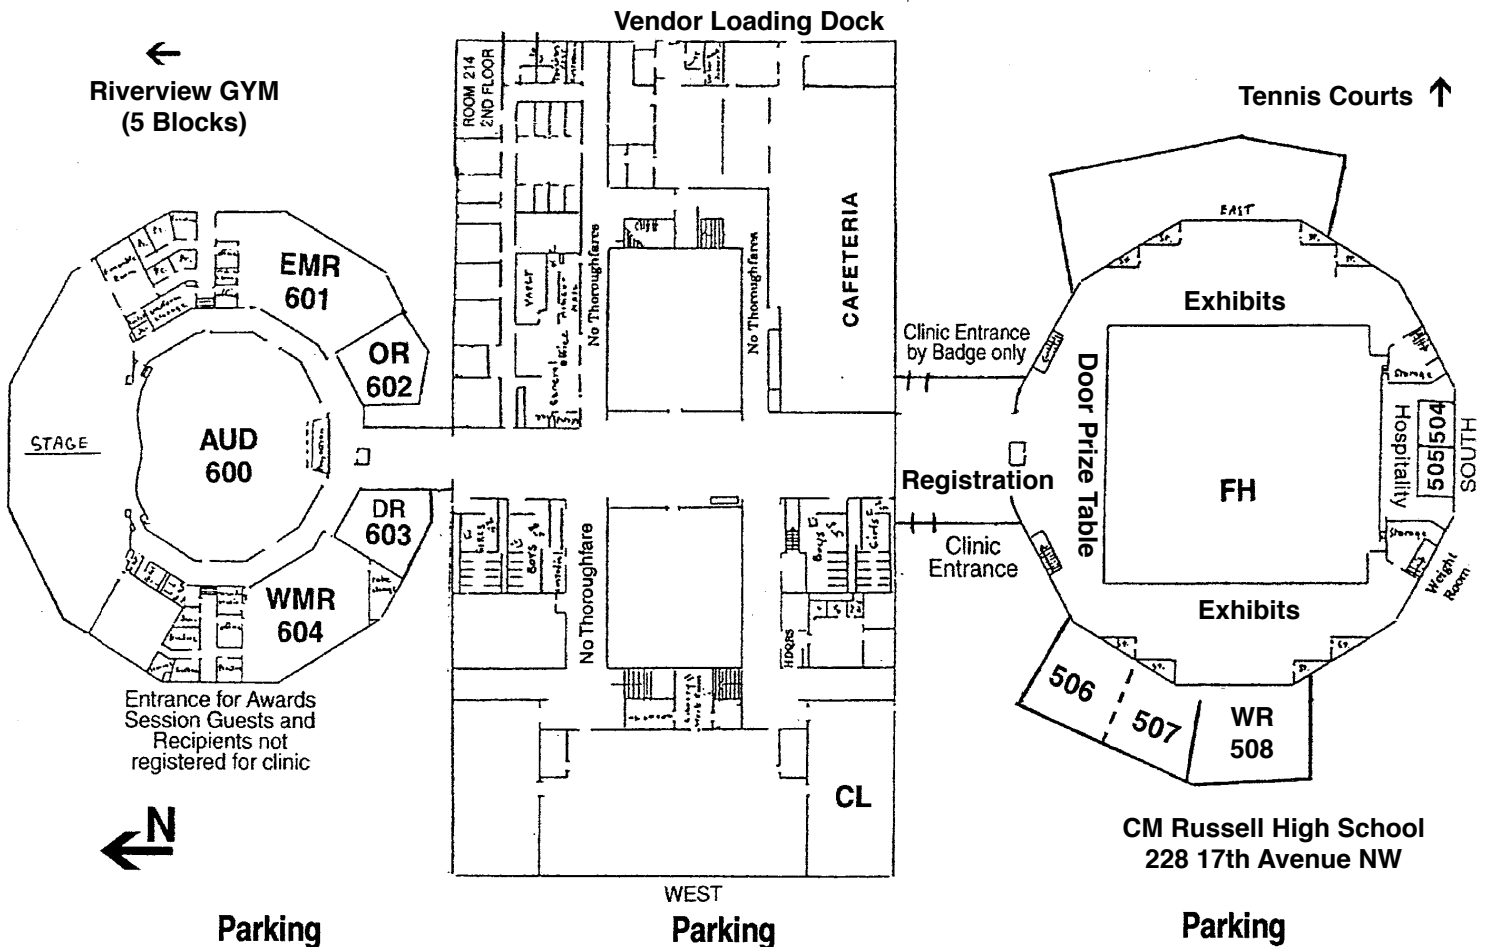

Melinda Owen Withrow
T & F – Pole Vault

Melinda has returned to Polson High after a 14-year absence during which time she competed collegiately (finishing her college career as the top ranked pole vaulter in the country) and professionally at both the Olympic Training Center, as well as the World Athletic Center, Altis. At Polson, Melinda was a 3-sport athlete with all-state honors in each sport and a part of the 2003 Girls state championship team. Withrow is a 3-times Olympic Trials Finalist in the Pole Vault and is a 2018 University of Idaho Hall of Fame Inductee. Withrow is incredibly excited to bring the knowledge she has earned at the highest level, back to Montana athletes and coaches. Topics: "Runway & Pole Plant"(Wed), "Warm-ups & Core Stability"(Thurs).
