Izzi is a sports medicine associate for the Billings Clinic and the new NSCA State Director and coordinator of the MCA Strength and Conditioning and Sports Medicine sessions.

She grew up in Washington state where she had a decorated 4-year career and went on to play collegiate soccer on the east coast. Izzi found her way to RMC, where she majored in HHP- exercise science and then worked for Nike in Southern California as a sports performance coach. Her work experience includes a variety of settings, including the Pac 12, NCAA division 1AA and NCAA DII. Topics: "Foundation of Coaching Lifts - weight room" & "More Efficient Warmups"

Michael Matury SM

Dr. Matury has presented at the MCA Clinic for many years and is always well received. He is a Purdue graduate and completed his chiropractic training at Palmer College of Chiropractic in 1989. He practiced in Indiana until moving to Montana in 2005. His practice emphasis includes soft tissue injury and repetitive strain disorders. Prior patients include two Mr. USA body building champions, a national power lifting champion, and various other NCAA athletes. Matury is certified in Functional Movement Screening which is used by athletes at all levels for injury prevention

MTATA S&C/SM

The Montana Athletic Trainers' Association (MTATA) is the professional association for athletic trainers in MT. MTATA directly serves its members by advancing, improving and promoting the profession of athletic training, serving the people of Montana through its commitment to advancing the health care provided by athletic trainers. MTATA is composed of board certified and state licensed Athletic Trainers. The presentation will be by a variety of ATs from around the state that share quick tips and tricks from identifying life threatening emergencies and the first things to do, to tape or quick wrap techniques. Hands on session and lots of discussion.

Youth Sports Safety

The Montana Youth Sports Safety Institute (MYSSI) was founded in 2019 by athletic trainers Dustin Burton, Paul Capp, Lexie Davis, and Valerie Moody, who have worked tirelessly in Montana to keep kids safe and active in sports. The MYSSI formalizes their work to promote safety in youth sports across Montana, protect youth sports athletes from injury, and to provide education and services to parents, coaches, athletes and other medical professionals to support safety in sport. Topics: "2- Hour CPR Certification" and "Implementing and practicing an Emergency Action Plan "EAP" and what coaches/ Administration need to know about legality"

Cameron Icenoggle S&C

Cameron has been coaching for 9 years at Skyview where has served as a volunteer for both the boys' and girls' team, coached the JV girls and been head coach for both programs. The last four years he has been the Varsity girls' coach. During this time, the girls have reached the semi-finals three times, the championship game twice and have won one state title. Cameron was named the United Soccer Coach association MT COY for girls in 2018 and has coached the MT East Women's team at the Shodair All Star game in 2018 and 2019. Along with coaching the soccer programs, Cameron also was the head throws coach for the track team for four years and has aided in the summer conditioning program for the last six years. Topic: "A More Efficient Way to Warm up... Movement Prep for all Sports"

Mark Johnston S&C

Mark directed the Montana National Strength and Conditioning Association for 7 years. He works at Billings Clinic as a sports medicine associate and lead instructor for the SST-ELITE athletic enhancement programs.
