Coached golf for 4 years at Great Falls Central Catholic High (2010-2014): Four individuals placing in top 15 at state and placed top 3 as a team in several tournaments. Topic: "Improving the short game" Chipping and putting is 83% of golfing. We will practice many ways to chip onto a green from varied distances. We will putt from different areas on the green. Come and have some fun learning as we challenge one another.

Shawna Juarez Softball

Shawna is the head softball coach for the Miles Community College 2020 inaugural season. Before Miles City, Coach Juarez coached in the NWAC as the head coach at Walla Walla Community College and before that at Edmonds Community College.

Prior to her arrival at Edmonds Community College, the Tritons experienced a one hundred game losing streak. In 2014, under Juarez's mentorship, the Lady Tritons finished just one game away from the NWAC Championships.

Juarez has also coached in the club softball scene and has been a part of five nationally ranked gold softball teams. Topics: "Team Chemistry" & "The Mind of the Athlete"

Jessica Campbell Softball

Jessie is the pitching coach for the Miles Community College softball team. Before taking this position, she volunteered as a pitching coach for the Colstrip Fillies (2019) and the Miles City Cowgirls (2015-2018). Previously, Jessie attended Hardin High School, where she played for the Bulldogs from 2008-2011 and received all state honors 2x as a pitcher. She played collegiate softball at MSU-Billings as a pitcher from 2011-2015. She was a member of two GNAC conference championship teams in 2012 and 2015. Topic: Pitching

Jamie Smith-Stevens Cheer

Jamie has served 20 years as cheer coach at Great Falls Central, where she is also the AD. Her unique job description gives her valuable insight for cheer coaches. She has been the cheer coach for the E-W Shrine Game 6 times, an MHSA Spirit Committee board member since 2007, MCA Cheer COY in 2014-15 and certified AACCA for 6 years. Topics: "Working with Administration: Making Admin a Part of the Team-Code of Conduct", "Sports Nutrition", "Using Technology: Apps for Success" & "Rule Changes for 20-21"

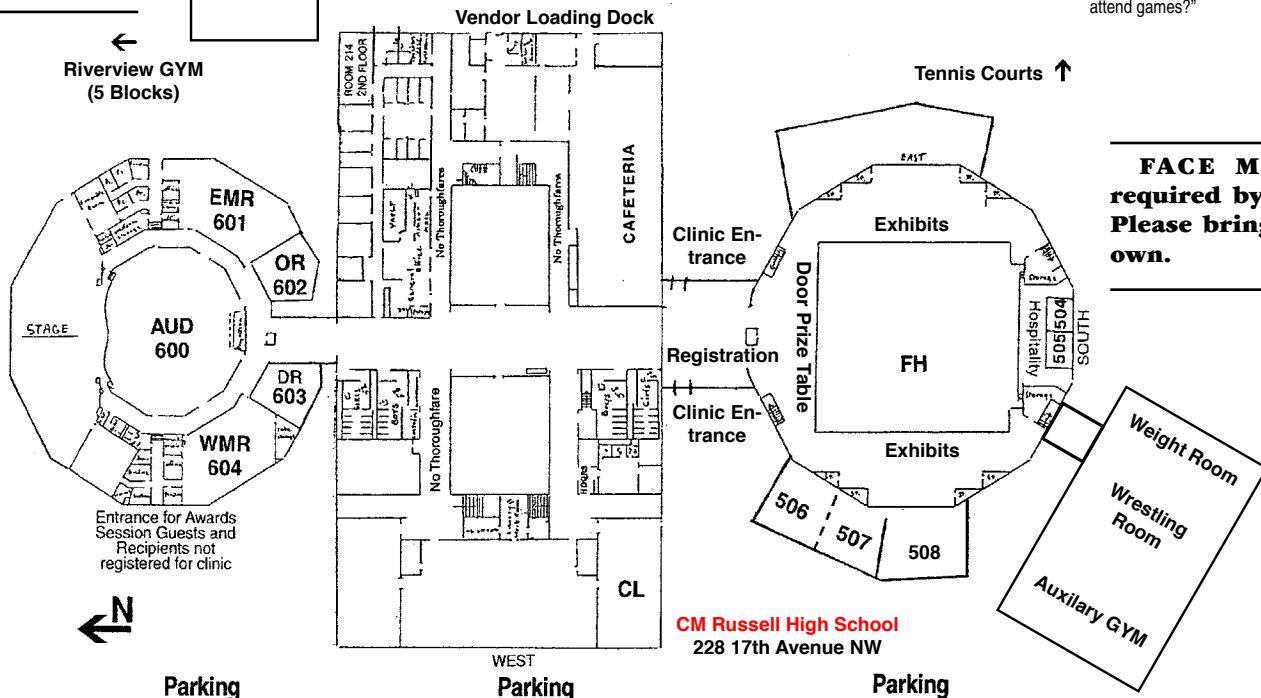

Julie Shepherd Cheer

Julie started her cheer coaching career in Choteau in 1996 and for the past 24 years has had the pleasure of coaching over 700 young men and women.

Shepherd is a graduate of Great Falls High and MSU and has served 17 years as cheer coach at the East-West Shrine Game. Julie has been an MHSA Spirit Committee board member and is AACCA certified. She was honored in 2011 as the MCA Cheer COY and has been a 4-time nominee and a 3-time finalist for the NHSACA Cheer COY. Topics: "Diversity in Coaching: Being able to identify the diverse personalities and talent of each member of your team and creating a successful season", "Basic Stunting: Starting at the beginning before you can go any higher", "Working with and for your school, other coaches, other clubs, administration" & "Cheer: What else do we do besides attend games?"
